

Lone Star Riverboat Charter Agreement

The Lone Star Riverboat is available for a public dinner cruise on the 4th of July, departing at 7:30pm. The three-hour cruise includes a BBQ dinner served buffet style (with all the sides and cookies for dessert), iced tea and water – vegetarian plates available if pre-ordered. BYOB for all alcohol, no glass containers please (you may bring a wine bottle and pour into a plastic cup). Soft drinks, juices, bottled water and set-ups are also included. We will also be enjoying bat watching at sunset and the city fireworks at 9:30pm with the best view on the lake!

The fare for the three-hour dinner cruise is $70.00 per person (8.25% state sales tax and 20% crew gratuity included $89.75). The fare is to be paid in full, in advance. We accept Visa, AX, MasterCard, and local checks only. (This agreement authorizes the Lone Star Riverboat Company to run the credit card provided for the total fare).

We urge you to take holiday traffic & detours into consideration and make every effort to be on the boat prior to departure time. The boat will leave at the designated departure time. If you have not arrived by departure time, you will forfeit your reservations and payment. (Park police close the lake at a designated time; therefore, we must depart promptly on time.)

In case of extremely bad weather as determined by the captain or problems which might affect boat safety, payment will be refunded. Payment is NOT REFUNDABLE FOR ANY OTHER REASONS. (By signing this agreement, you realize the payment is non-refundable for any reason).

The Riverboat's owner accepts no responsibility for accidents due to negligence of the passengers. It is expected that passengers will stay within the confines of the railing and use caution when ascending & descending the stairs and boarding & exiting the boat.
